Customer Reviews

I have used this for years and love having it in a bound edition. I buy all I can find and give them to those I have trained in discipleship. I still use the three ring binder version cause I love the graphics. Best for working with others I have found.

My church is using this book in our Abundant Life Class and it's amazing how long I've been going to church and haven't been taught that I should be disciplined first so that I can in turn become a disciplemaker. A must have for churches!

Our Sunday Morning Bible Study has been using Christian Discipleship: A Step-By-Step Guide to Fulfilling the Great Commission for a little over a year now. It is amazing to see the difference in the lives of our Bible Study members as they learn about their relationship to God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit and actively seek to develop that relationship. Their relationships with others has also been deeply affected. We have actively invited more people to join our Sunday School class as we begin this study over again. Former students are now willing to become disciple-makers. This book contains scripture after scripture to to back up what is being said.

This is a great book with a good flow, it is easy to read and understand. I use it for Wednesday night Bible study and so far the members like it. It provokes good conversation and brings to the forefront issues that will make you examine yourself. If you want the basics with illustrations this is a must read.
