Arielle In The Animal Kingdom: A Walt Disney World Cast Member Memoir

Synopsis

Lions and Tigers and Cast Members Armed with a freshly minted degree in anthropology, Arielle Tuan found her job prospects less than hoped for. Then she heard of the professional internships at Disney's Animal Kingdom for college graduates interested in conservation. Apply? Why not! And from there her adventure began...Arielle soon found herself in possession of a "bug box" and told to educate guests about conservation and how they could help save the world "whether they wanted to hear it or not. After the bug boxes, she moved to Wilderness Explorer Stations (then known as Kids Clubs) and "animal positions", including one that featured the seldom cooperative Marley the Crocodile. For shy, introverted Arielle, her months in the steaming "jungle" of the Animal Kingdom, surrounded by wild animals and sometimes even wilder guests and cast members, brought about a metamorphosis. From the girl with the bug box that most guests ignored as they raced for the "thrill" rides every morning, Arielle found her groove as one of the park's Conservation Education Presenters. Her stories shed light on a whole other world at Disney's Animal Kingdom. YOU'LL HAVE A WILD TIME!

Customer Reviews

Whether you're visiting the theme park or not; this is a great read. Perfect balance of info on the park, humor, and behind the scene anecdotes!

I enjoyed the way she presented the internship. You could really tell that she enjoyed her time there. I recommend this book.
