This book is fantastic! Mr McNutt is spot on with his empathetic style. The reader feels an immediate kinship with him. He pulls no punches with respect to owning your feelings and behaviors. I highly recommend this book. It brought me rare peace after a recent heartbreak.

I learned a lot thank you for sharing you personal experiences and I loved the poems. There was a point in my life where I carried all the pain from past relationships because of that nothing worked. I learned to love myself before I could love anyone else. Your book really helped me see it from a male perspective.

Sylvester McNutt III's words touch me in a very profound way. Reading 'The Dear Queen Journey: A Path To Self Love' left me crying and smiling. I could not put it down. Sitting on my couch in front of the fireplace for hours until I had read every word from cover to cover. Finally seeing the words to describe so many emotions I have experienced myself. A very validating feeling to know at least one other person understands completely. Sylvester's raw, deep, powerful thoughts transform perspective in a very empowering way. I highly recommend every woman and man read this book.

I typically speed read, but I honestly took my time and absorbed everything I could from this book because it hit home several times. I have read it twice now and still manage to find new parts that speak to me, enlighten me, and resounds in my soul. Thank you for sharing this work with the world. It is certainly opening my mind and heart to healing and learning to love myself even more.

Highly anticipated it and when I got it is couldn't put it down. Recommended it to all my friends. Even got my copy floati around at work. Will definitely read it many more times so I'm always reminded to love myself first!
